#1492 Let a issue submitter close his/her issue.

As the creator of a pr can close his pr (may be once he understands that his pr is already dealt with or maybe his pr is not valid), we must also have a option for closing the issue.

If the issuer has a doubt and has posted an issue and if his doubt is solved, he might as well close his issue. By doing so, we can reduce the number of open issues.
